MEDICINAL.

Gloomy thoughts become habitual to the dyspeptic. He looks on the dark side of things and every mole hill becomes a mountain. His condition affects his business judgment and mars his home relations.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It gives buoyancy of mind as well as health of body because it removes the physical cause of mental depression.

It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, and the body is strengthened by nutrition which is the only source of physical strength.

"I was afflicted with what the doctors called nervous indigestion. Took medicine from my family physician to no avail," writes Mr. Thos. G. Lever, of Lever, Richmond Co., S. C. "At night I would have cold or hot feet and hands, alternately. I was getting very nervous and suffered a great deal mentally, thinking that death would soon claim me. Always expected something unusual to take place; was irritable and impatient, and greatly reduced in flesh. I could scarcely eat any thing that would not produce a bad feeling in my stomach. After some hesitation, I decided to try a few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets.' After taking several bottles of each, found I was improving. I continued for six months or more off and on. I have to be careful yet, at times, of what I eat, in order that I may feel good and strong. I fully believe if any one suffering with indigestion or torpid liver or chronic cold would take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' and observe a few simple hygienic rules, they would soon be greatly benefited, and with a little perseverance would be entirely cured."

Biliousness is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

CATARRH Nasal Catarrh

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures Catarrh, and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cold in Head Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying, does not produce sneezing. Large size, 50 cents at druggists or by mail; trial size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

KODOL

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol

Digests What You Eat

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: "After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured."

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action.

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.

AN OLD SOUTHERN CHRISTMAS.

When the family were all up and dressed, then the great bowl of eggnog was distributed in punch cups to the family, a thimbleful to the children, a tumblerful each to the servants, and then breakfast. Waffles, hot corn cakes, flaky rolls, beaten biscuits, white and light as feathers, broiled woodcocks, with their heads tucked under their wings, quail on toast; French coffee, which stained the porcelain cups yellow, it was so strong, and the white children each had his favorite negro child, usually about his own age, brought in, who squatted on the floor close to the little master and shared everything in common with him, notwithstanding the threat of the older servants, delivered in an undertone: "Dem good things wasn't made for you. I got a great mind to bust you wide open" which only brought a grin to the shining, fat little faces. Breakfast fairly over, the baying of hounds could be heard, and the neighing of horses. One neighbor after another came in, with a game bag over his shoulder, his boots outside of his trousers, with shotgun in hand and copper powder flash tied about his neck with a cord. They took a glass of eggnog, and by the time they had all assembled 15 or 20 mounted men and several negroes on plow horses clattered off across the prairie. The game was in immense quantities, wild ducks, plover, wild geese, deer, sometimes a bear and more rarely still a "painter" (panther), now called a mountain lion or wildcat, and they brought home a wonderful harvest of game. As the day wore on the negroes serenaded the "great house" by singing their own hymns, such as

If you want to make old Satan run, Why, shoot him with yo' gospel gun. Load yo' gun with hope and grace, And shoot old Satan in de face.

Thanksgiving has too lately passed for me to describe the huge turkeys, the roasted sheep and the other good things provided for the Christmas feast, to which the hungry hunters did full justice, while the wide-eyed children listened to their talk with silent delight. Our old overseer had been of the hunting party and remained to dinner. Proud of his achievement, he narrated to the assembled company that he had recently learned to read, and he found the Bible "a bully book." The only person he "could not stand" was old Abraham; he was too forgetful for any use; he not only forgot Isaac and Jacob, but he forgot the 12 tribes of Israel. For the few survivors of those happy days, time will soon be no more, but to have lived them in an era of universal good-fellowship, which I hope now is again promising "peace on earth and good will to men," is a happiness for which I thank the Giver of all good things. (Mrs. Jefferson Davis in Philadelphia Inquirer.)

ANARCHIST FATALLY SHOT.

Voltairine le Cleve, a noted anarchist and a teacher of languages, was mysteriously shot and mortally wounded by Herman Henschler, a former pupil, in Philadelphia yesterday. The woman is dying in a hospital and Henschler is in custody. Unrequited love is said to have prompted the deed. When arrested Henschler's only explanation was the following: "We were sweethearts, she and I. She broke my heart and deserved to be killed." Miss le Cleve is thirty-six years of age and her assailant is twenty-four. The shooting occurred on the street in broad daylight, and was witnessed by a score of persons. Miss le Cleve was standing at a street corner awaiting a car. Henschler, who had disguised himself by means of a false mustache, approached her from the rear and accosted her. Almost at the same moment he drew a revolver from his pocket and pointed it at the woman, who turned and attempted to run away. She had gone only a few steps when Henschler began firing upon her. After discharging five shots at the fleeing woman, three of which took effect, he replaced the pistol in his pocket and started to walk away. He made no effort to escape and was immediately arrested. Miss le Cleve ran a short distance and then sank exhausted upon a door step. She was carried into the house and from there removed to a hospital. In her statement to a magistrate she denied acquaintance with Henschler, but when he was brought before her minus the false mustache she at once recognized him. She declined, however, to accuse him of having shot her, but asked the police if he had admitted it. Neither would she state the nature of her relations with Henschler. Two bullets took effect in the woman's right side, below the shoulder, and another embedded itself in the right side of the chest. The physicians hold out no hope for her recovery. Miss le Cleve has attained wide spread notoriety through her anarchistic utterances and her intimacy with Emma Goldman and other anarchists. She is an accomplished linguist and musician, and has written much anarchistic literature and many erotic poems. Henschler is a cigar-maker.

To Get Rid of a Troublesome Corn. Afflict with it in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing the blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to cure Piles. For Blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. E. S. Landreth & Sons.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement. "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Phoebe, Pastor Central Rev. Church, Helena, Mont.

After using Ely's Cream Balm six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh.—Joseph Stewart, Grand Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50c, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.
